Astro Money Mojo

Energy follows thought.
What have you been thinking today about money?

Astro-Money-Mojo is designed to help you leverage the Law of Attraction AND your personal astrology to release any money issues and let the good times roll! Often the only thing stopping you from experiencing your full potential and highest abundance is lack of awareness—and that's something you can address.

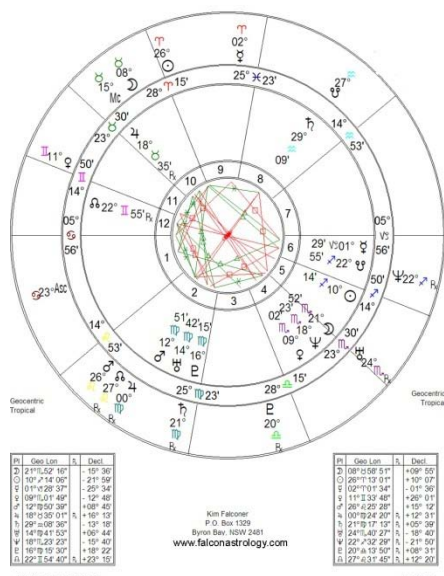

My aim is to make it easy for you to see where you're getting tripped up and how to set yourself on a straight course to what you want. All you need is to know your sun sign (those on the cusp may want to double check their birth data at www.astro.com).

Knowing your ascendant sign can be helpful too, but not necessary. You will naturally gravitate towards the information you need. Inner guidance will take you there—trust that, and remember, everyone has all twelve signs of the zodiac in their charts!

The Big Four

There are four main steps to the Astro-Money-Mojo process:

- 1. Find your old story: Identify 'Myths' around money, wealth, security, value-- what's been inherited. These are 'kinks' in your 'money vibe' that limit what you believe you will attract (or earn).
- 2. Identify Gremlins and how to release them -- the thoughts or old experiences that block your ability to live the life you desire.
- 3. Tell a new story-- You decide what your authentic story is and start telling it, no matter what 'reality' looks like.
- 4. Discover where the release/alignment is—Suggestions on how to get into vibrational alignment with what you want.

Astrology and LOA? How does that work?

Before we start, let's all get on the same page with what astrology is and how it fits in with LOA.

Our astrology doesn't make us the way we are—the birth time determining our character and nature. It is exactly the opposite. We are born at a particular time because of who we are—the moment of birth being a perfect reflection of our essence.

We are not born with a clean slate.

We are energy beings, vibrating at a particular frequency.

The Law of Attraction says 'like will attract like'. This is a simple way of saying that everything in our lives is in alignment with our vibration. We attract whatever we vibrate! In this way we attract; the day we are born as a symbolic reflection of who we are.

An astrological chart can tell us more about our Self. We can discover limiting beliefs, past patterns, core values and authentic goals. We can spot where we might be projecting onto others; attributing to them, parts of ourselves. We can use it to understand the paths we tread, and to understand the people in our lives; our parents, children, partners, work mates and friends. Astrology is a tool, used to see the authenticity of a being.

We are our own destiny. We say what happens, not the horoscope. Think of the astrology chart as a road map. It tells us about the lay of the land. Here are the mountains. There is the ocean. You wouldn't ask the map to tell you where to go but you would look at the map before you packed to know if you needed a jacket, hiking boots or swimmers.

Remember the horoscope is a snap shot of a single moment in time. There is nothing to say that it belongs to a person. It could be the chart of a cat, a company, a building or an idea. We are more than the moment in time, yet it still matches our vibration.

Astrology functions within a closed system (the predictable motion of the solar system). But consciousness is not confined to any closed system. Nothing in the chart can limit, determine or expand consciousness. That's all you! It's an inside job. A look at the stars (as above-so below) may offer insight and understanding—giving you a chance to know yourself from a greater perspective.

1. Identify family and personal 'Myths' around money, wealth, security, value—what's been inherited.

These are 'kinks' in your 'money vibe' that limit what you believe you will attract (or earn). As long as you aren't conscious of them, they rule! They call the shots.

The FIRST STEP is to read the following statements to see which ones ring true. That's all. There's nothing else to do with them yet but see where your belief in how you receive or what you deserve might be holding you back. If you believe it, you'll experience it. No exceptions.

You may find you 'react' to one statement more than another—that's an indication it has something to do with your money vibe. (If you hear yourself saying any of the following: No, how stupid, that NEVER happened to me, my myths are nothing like that, read it again. It could well belong to you.) A reaction of any kind is a red flag. Pay attention to it!

Myths by Element:

Fire = Aries, Leo, Sagittarius

Fire Sign myth #1: If you aren't recognized by society/peers/family as being powerful and important, then you are not powerful and important.

Fire myth #2: If you want something, you have to go after it yourself. Things don't just 'come' to you.

Earth = Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

Earth Sign myth #1: Life is full of disappointments. We aren't able to have everything. (We aren't royalty after all!) Who do you think you are that you would deserve it all? You're not that kind of person!

Earth Sign myth #2: You have to have a common sense approach to money and finances. This is no place to get 'spiritual' or lax. It's a practical matter.

Air = Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

Air Sign myth #1: The world is unstable, like shifting sands. Things can change without warning. The rug can be pulled out from under you at any moment. Protect, protect, protect.

Air Sign myth #2: Money, finances, mortgage, relationship—they all take a LOT of responsibility to manage. You can't have freedom AND money; spirituality AND money; creativity AND money. Face it—it's either/or!

Water = Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

Water Sign myth #1: If you learn enough, work hard enough, are good enough, smart enough and lucky enough, you may, someday, have some--but watch out because others will try and take it! Deception is everywhere.

Water Sign Myth #2: The trouble starts when you join forces with others. The best intentions with friends, partners, family, or employee/employers can lead to disaster. You have to watch out. They could deceive you. Victim vs. saviour motifs.

These family myths lose their hold once you identify them!

Choose the one that seems most relevant and see if you can remember a situation in which this was 'true', or a time when your parents or family members said it was true. Go back and find the old story in your life and see whose it is. Someone gave you these myths and as you become aware of it, you can hand it back, or tell it a different way.

These stories only hold sway if you identify with them. By finding their source, you can disengage and hit the eject button. If you can't find the source, imagine one. Your made up version may well be an accurate representation of the truth and in any case it will help you release your hold. (Yes, you hold it, it doesn't hold you!) The key is to make peace with these mythologies you have inherited and begin to write something new!

Get conscious of your money myths!

Explore your Sun Sign statements in the horoscope below and see if any might be true for you. Remember, being conscious of the kink or 'charge' is the important step. Ask: Is this serving your money vibe or keeping what you want at a distance? Again, you don't have to 'do' anything with this yet. If you find it evokes an old story, you might want to write it out and throw it into an old story pot, burn, or compost it. (For now, the goal is to become aware, become conscious).

NOTE: If these sound like gremlin traits, it's because they are—they're meant to be narky! (Cranky, negative, difficult, insulting and button pushing). This is how we flush out the old story and bring it to light. If you 'object' to any comments, or take offense, that's a sign that it has something to do with you. Be brave and fearless in your scrutiny :)

We'll talk about how to get clear and un-kink these old stories next!

1 Horoscope – Limiting $ Beliefs & Myths

♈Aries: Money = Security. There is none without it. You have to hold on tight or it slips through your fingers! It's important! Vital! Necessary! It takes hard steady work to gain money or financial success and there probably won't be anyone helping you along the way. You have a LOT of thoughts about money and even more thoughts about how to gain it. Your tendency is to use force, to fight for and/or to push against obstacles to get what you want. It's all about the battle.

♉Taurus: Money = Matter. Money makes the world go round. It also is an indicator of what things are worth, and social status. Without money, you suffer. Money can come from relatives but they may also try to take it back! The propensity to talk, talk, talk about a given money situation is HUGE. You constantly tell the story, and not always a positive one. Your tendency is to charm, sweet talk, and cajole to get more money. It's all about the seduction.

♊Gemini: Money = Manipulation. Money is a way to get people to like you and also a way to control them. It can pull strings. This is why you loan it out when you can and avoid borrowing at all cost. You have a 6th sense when it comes to money because you know what other people want. Knowledge is power and knowledge about money vital. You have to study, record and keep track of everything. It's all about getting, keeping and dramatizing!

♋Cancer: Money = Love. If you don't have one, you won't have the other. If you don't have money, people will give you little thought or consideration. But money is tricky. It cannot be left to its own devices. It has to be constantly watched. Your 'lovableness' is directly related to how many dollar bills are in your wallet or figures in the bank account. Same goes for others. It's all about love really—money and love are indistinguishable.

♌Leo: Money = Judgment. Money must be used for good. If you don't handle it that way, it becomes evil and so do you. The more lavishly you spend, the more people will love and admire you—it can even be used as a defence against intimacy, closeness, and emotional honesty. Money can also make up for lack of time, interest or attention when you don't want to 'be there' for someone. It's all about creating distance while keeping control.

♍Virgo: Money = Awareness. Watch your money like a hawk. Accounts could do with a good balancing daily—more frequently during times of stress. The key is to check everything, constantly. If you can't do that, hire someone who can. Better still, become an accountant yourself, or marry one. Because you would prefer to have joint funds and finances, to an account on your own, you seek others to merge your finances with. It's all about sharing the worry and concern.

♎Libra: Money = Stockpiling. Generosity is for the weak. The money you earn belongs to you and no one else. The worst thing that can ever happen is 'lack' in the later part of life. All people think like this, no matter what they say. The only way to be secure is to have the mortgage paid off and the right figure in the bank. Problems arise when the tight hold on money puts you in disfavour with others. It's all about pleasing them without letting go the grip.

♏Scorpio: Money = Guilt. It is not spiritual to want money, but you do. If you follow the higher path, forget about ever having any money in the bank. The two—enlightenment and success—don't mix. They are mutually exclusive. It doesn't really matter though because having money makes you miserable with worry so best just repress all desires for financial security. It's all about putting spirit first and resisting matter (money or possessions).

♐Sagittarius: Money = Secrets. If you have any money, pretend you don't, otherwise people will try to take it from you. Lie if necessary. Keep telling the story, 'I don't have money.' Or, 'My parents are rich, not me.' That will throw them off the track. You can always get therapy for how unhappy you'll be when your money slips through your fingers. If people ask for help, you give of your time but not your pocketbook. It's all about prudence and smokescreens.

♊Capricorn: Money = Power. Life is a competition to see how much money you can get and how long you can hold on to it. Stinginess helps. Never discuss money with friends or family unless your accountant is present. Saving money is paramount. Banks may or may not be trustworthy. You can actually put pockets in the casket, which might be the best solution. The beauty here is, money can be used as a barrier against vulnerability—a way to control those in your life.

♒Aquarius: Money = Obligation. The financial realm is the one safe place to vent dark emotional feeling, as long as no one knows you are doing it. Keep everything as covert and deceptive as possible. Money is also a yard stick for how much you are liked as a person. If you don't get the loan, the grant, the clients or the mention in Uncle Bob's will, there is something very wrong with your personality. It's all about what is due.

♓Pisces: Money = Self-Worth. How much money you have demonstrates how good a person you are—how smart, sexy and valuable. You feel you have to make it financially in order to prove your worthiness. Broke is bad, very bad. Rich is good, but rarely good enough. You could always have more. Extravagance is second nature and the tendency is to go after money first and think later. It's all about the hunt and you are the hunter—a deadly game.

2. Identify Gremlins and how to release them – the thoughts or old experiences that block your easy flow of abundance.

These thoughts creep in when you're tired, insecure or scared.

Water vs. Earth—the Mystic vs. the Pragmatist: There could be a ‘split’ gremlin in your midst. He’s very confused. He thinks that earning and spending and banking and HAVING money makes you a pragmatist, someone only interested in tangible abundance—nothing else. He thinks that HAVING money means choosing the worldly life over the mystical, spiritual or healing one, the creative one, the one really worth living. He thinks you can have money but give up your soul, or you can keep your soul and live in debt.

This is the gremlin that thinks money and spirituality are mutually exclusive.

Fire vs. Earth—Fear of success: You may feel you have to compete for money, to take action to ‘grab’ for it, or the next goal, but you often freeze at the moment of launch, the moment of inspiration. Somewhere in the unconscious is a gremlin that fears success. You may be all keyed up for the adventure, ready for the inspired action, or simply allowing events to whisk you into the perfect position and then, wham. The shackles are on. It’s like a ball and chain. Mr. Fearful Gremlin thinks he’s protecting you from disappointment. His logic is, if you don’t try, you don’t fail. Unfortunately, not trying for a thing means doing without, which is the gremlin’s own worst case scenario.

Air vs. Earth: Vision vs. Entrapment: Money seems to trigger a conflict between the creative vision of your dreams and the ‘reality’ of manifestation. Here are two gremlins in a tug-o-war. It seems like you have to choose between having an idealized creative vision in your mind—perfect—and the ‘reality’ of the dream manifested—imperfect. It’s like the vision can only live in your imagination because when it comes forth, it is flawed, disappointing.

The paradox is that until the vision is brought into reality, you have no direct experience of your creation—but when it lands, it feels ‘less than’ or perhaps even like a trap, a prison. The dilemma can paralyse your manifesting powers, especially around money. You can vision the perfect wealth but as money comes to you it seems to have flaws, burdens, responsibilities...better to dream than to be caught in the flaw, or give up the dream and have some cash. It feels like an ‘either/or’ situation.

Strongly placed ☽ ☾ Moon/Cancer, ♀ ♎ Venus/Libra

People Pleaser vs. Authentic goals: You may feel that unless you have 10 degrees, graduate with honours, have government, family and community approval, you are not qualified or deserving to receive the financial reward you attract. More so, if you feel you aren’t doing what ‘others’ want, if you feel you aren’t ‘needed’ by them, the money vibe gets kinked big time. This can translate into confusion (which is the sign of a ‘wrong for you’ goal) around money. That means money (energy) has trouble flowing your way because you don’t think you really deserve it unless you are pleasing others or doing as they feel is best! It’s so hard to go ‘against the grain’.

Strongly placed ♃ ♆ Neptune/Pisces Victim-Savoir: This gremlin builds up around a few different beliefs; that you have to struggle to make ends meet, that you are lacking in some essential skill or ability to achieve your goals or that you, in spite of every effort, are helpless in the face of 'greater forces'. These are all thoughts that you keep thinking, consciously or unconsciously and by doing so, they create and reinforce your experience of life. The predominate feeling can be one of victimization.

Part of this comes from having a very sensitive nervous system, and a kind of mind that works like a 'psychic sponge'. You 'take on' the energy around you very easily and as a child, this would mean that the energy of your parents, or your primary care givers, would have strongly affected you. Their moods became your moods, or you may have felt their moods were caused by you! You became 'responsible' for everyone's feelings!

It is possible that whilst growing up it was not reinforced how powerful you are. You can be torn between pleasing others and doing what you want because you do want to please others. It's a 'circular reasoning', (that can go round and round). The point is, energetically, you may at times identify with a feeling of almost not 'being there' or 'not being heard' or not 'being effective'—where in fact you have aspects of your make up that are very powerful, with awesome abilities to not only assert, and speak your mind, but to flourish while doing so.

If these balancing qualities were not supported you may not have learned to identify with them as YOU. (Others were strong and lucky and powerful, not you, they might have said...in so many words). You may have overheard things when you were very young that really stuck and they weren't true! It's possible you heard a LOT of inaccurate thoughts and took them on as fact. Remember, 'Any thought that obscures your sense of joy and purpose in life is never accurate'—Martha Beck.

Other gremlins include:

Air *I can't be a good person and have millions of dollars.

Air *Money could tie me down.

Air *Great wealth will isolate me from friends and family.

Fire * It's too much to be responsible for. I'll lose my freedom.

Water * If I have my own money, no one will take care of me.

Water * Money attracts the darker elements of life.

Earth * Money is dangerous—If I have too much, people may try and steal it.

These gremlin patterns may link directly to a childhood event. See if any of your myths around money/safety/security relate to a disruptive event—a family move? Parents split up? Parental abandonment? Was another child born? Was there fear around the house? Were you ill? Hospitalized? Perhaps your mother miscarried or was unwell? It may not even be directly related to you but could be affecting your approach to money, and the way you go about getting what you want.

If you can unravel an event from one or all of those times and let go of the trauma/defence/fear/anger – your relationship to money (energy) will shift big time.

How to Release those Gremlins:

Once you have your limiting beliefs and gremlins clearly in mind, explore your Sun Sign below for ways to release these kinks in your money vibe. Remember, this is easy—like taking a dog for a walk. The dog isn't going to say, 'Sorry, not really into it.' He's keen and ready and all wags and barks.

We're going for a walk; nothing but fun here! Go with the activity or thought that feels like that! All wags and barks!

(Some of you have seen this analogy of the dog and his bone in my readings: Dog = you; Bone = gremlin.)

How do we get the dog to drop the bone? Play fetch! Offer him something better—something authentic that he can't refuse. Something he gets a kick out of chasing! Here are some ideas that can help you drop that old money bone and open up to new horizons.

NOTE: Read your sun sign and also explore your Ascendant or rising sign, if you know it, and see if that rings true for you as well.

#2 Horoscope — release techniques

♈Aries: Get sensual—smell flowers, kiss, eat out, touch, get a massage, buy things. Have sex. Every time you find yourself stuck or worried about money, pivot away from those thoughts by getting in touch with tangible pleasures. They don't have to cost anything, but they might! Either way, the BETTER you feel about your body and the 5 senses, the easier money will flow to you.

 Taurus: Get communicating—use the written or spoken word. Write a story, sing a song, chat with friends, go on MSN, join a forum, blog, write letters to people, say what you want to say (it doesn't matter at all if you send them, or if the recipients are still 'alive'). Also, take a day trip. Go to a familiar place—walk in the park, a museum, a cafe. MOVING yourself physically can shift things big time. The more you express yourself verbally, the more money will flow to you.

 Gemini: Get nurturing—share the love. Find a place where you feel 'needed'. Volunteer, read to the blind, rescue a pet, become a big sister or big brother, bake cookies, babysit, AND allow others to nurture you. Cuddle, comfort, appreciate and value everyone you love and let them do the same. If they offer to make your life sweeter, say YES. The more you give and receive nurturing, the easier money will flow to you.

 Cancer: Get creative—get in touch with your inner urge to play, paint, sing, write, dance and rock. Take a moment to think about what you really loved doing as a child. Does it still appeal? Head for the playground and bring a friend. It's time to appreciate the joy of creative self-expression and shared experiences. Mix it up, sing it up, spell it up. The more your inner child laughs, the more you boost your confidence, the easier money will flow to you.

 Leo: Get organized—move away from chaos towards order. Honour your critical thought and powers of discernment by taking actions that lead to greater distillation of ambitions, aptitudes and order in life. In other words, clean up your act! Tighten the script, touch up the picture, perfect the dance—the more ideal you can imagine your life, the easier money will flow to you. This is no place to hold back on your absolutely wildest dreams. Use your ingenious mind to think it so.

 Virgo: Get relating—seriously, when money gets tight, stop thinking about it and enjoy the fun of doing things with the people in your life. Enjoy your friends, give a dinner party, plan a picnic, go on an outing, ask someone out on a date! The key here is SHARED experience. It doesn't matter what you do so much as that you do it together. Don't wait for a 'soul mate' to have fun with another person. The more you relate, the easier money will flow to you.

 Libra: Get intense—when was the last time you had an animated discussion? Great sex? A peak experience? When money feels tight, find a DIFFERENT 'life and death' matter to focus on. Rescue an animal, stalk a celebrity, volunteer in an emergency ward, go hang gliding, take a risk, watch a 'cliff hanger' movie, read a gripping novel. The idea is to put yourself on the edge, one way or the other. Crank up the intensity dial and watch the money flow in.

 Scorpio: Get going—time to expand your horizons. Get out of the narrow box – be it your thinking, living or working environment. Take a trip to somewhere you have never been. It doesn't have to cost a cent. Go to a new museum, a park you've never seen, or meditate! Try an ethnic restaurant, see a foreign exhibition/film, learn a new language, or jump on a jet. When you expand your horizons, money flows in!

♐ Sagittarius: Get productive—the feel good here is in seeing your tangible results. Landscape your garden (or just pull weeds) sweep the path (chop wood; carry water), string beads, weave baskets, design a program, write a speech, remodel, repair, rebuild. Do something – so that you can stand back, brush the dust from your hands and say, ‘done!’ The more you accomplish, the easier money will flow to you.

♑ Capricorn: Get wilful—it’s time to let your powerful intellect call the shots. If you’ve been doing for others, take a sabbatical. Allow them to cook, clean, mend, arrive, remember, and achieve for themselves. This is YOUR time and the more you set goals that reflect who you are (not who you think they think you are) the more authentic you will become. Hint: Learn to say no to things you don’t want to do. The more sassy you are, the easier money will flow to you.

♒ Aquarius: Get easy-breezy—be like water and go with the flow. Imagine your resistance as being a tether binding your boat to the shore. Snip, Snip! Cut those ties and allow yourself to join the energy flow! Be impressionable. Be sentimental, empathic and psychic. Care for everything, and worry about nothing. Hold lightly romance, daydreams, secrets and all things impractical. The more you simply allow, the more money will flow to you.

those keen and alert reflexes and your healthy sense of aggression—take up martial arts, kick boxing, (or watch a Bruce Lee film), compete, if it feels good, and put yourself in the race. Note: Get good at saying NO! The more you assert yourself authentically, the easier money will flow to you!

3. Tell a new story.

This is where it starts to get fun! You get to make this up! You decide what your authentic story is and start telling it, no matter what ‘reality’ looks like.

Below are sign by sign suggestions for your ‘preferred story’. These are geared to vitalize your sun sign/ascendant—amplifying a sense of authenticity and happiness.

#3 Horoscope – Tell a New Story

♈Aries: Tell an Adventure Story—Money flows when you think competitive, courageous, self oriented, active and playful thoughts. Put ideas into action, getting a head start! It can be fun to take risks, even physical, and use the body in athletic and creative ways. You require a sense of autonomy and independence as you move out into life, defining individuality by pioneering activity in the world. (Be the BOSS!) It is also important that any given action, any challenge, remain fresh, rigorous and even a little bit illusive, to hold your attention. Otherwise, move on to the next!

 Taurus: Tell a Sumptuous Story—Money flows when you ground yourself in the body, allowing for strength, luxuriance, sensuality and persistence. The energy here is a storehouse of power; your responses deliberate and reflexes measured. Spontaneity is not the watchword; but thought out plans and sensual pleasure are. Indulge! Tell a story that is in no hurry to get to the end but enjoys every step of the way. Your sustaining qualities and practical talents that do not push for rapid or impromptu decisions work best. Let the story marinate. The results will be all the more pleasurable if you avoid stampede.

 Gemini: Tell a Tall Story— Money flows when you nurture your highly active imagination and share it through streams of inner or outer dialog. It can bring fast results. It's time to discover, engage and communicate a multitude of ideas, and multi-tasking is recommended. You flourish when involved in diverse pursuits that explore the relationship between one thing and another. Often, the more you take on in the world, the better you feel. Do not hesitate to exaggerate and/or make things up. The story you tell today is the world you walk in tomorrow. It can look like anything you want it to. The power and the magic is in the written or spoken word. Tell it like you want it to be.

 Cancer: Tell a Bedtime Story— Money flows when you ponder, sooth, nurture and reflect before initiating action, mulling things over until you feel complete. This story moves best at its own pace. Rely on feelings and creative imagination more than force or push. The quick cure for emotional strain is a good long nap! You flourish by creating close bonds, nurturing relationships and a potent sense of security. You can accomplish this by taking care of your body, a bond with the immediate self. Self-love and self nurturing bring the quickest and greatest results. Allow intuitiveness, sensitivity and connection in everything you do.

 Leo: Tell a Captivating Story—Money flows when you engage others, bringing them into your circle and sharing your creative expression. Take centre stage. You have an abundance of vitality—focus it in creative, physical and dramatic ways. Initiate projects with gusto, express beliefs with fervour, do nothing by halves. Let exuberance and a romantic flourish augment everything you do. Allow your ‘shine’ to be projected out into the world. When you express with a sense of purpose, it translates into creativity, success and importance—be like a king or queen.

 Virgo: Tell a Detailed Story— Money flows when you get in touch with the intricate and component parts of life—the fine details. You work best when you can assimilate and analyse and express through your lively mind. You have an added measure of mental energy that is happiest when you ‘get busy’. This boisterous energy can express in one of two ways: internally, through mental orderliness and critical thinking; externally, through ritual organization of material things. Either way, inner or outer, running a tight ship brings peace. Like all earth signs, don’t let yourself be pushed!

♎Libra: Tell a Beautiful Story— Money flows when you create aesthetic surroundings—nix on the coarse, vulgar or uncivilized environs. Artistic appreciation is strong, as is your desire to be fair, but firm. The ‘right’ action is ascertained if contemplated long enough. Decision are not always arrived at instantly until ‘either/or’ is replaced by ‘and/and’. Life feels best when you share, include and participate—i.e. form meaningful relationships. Partnerships bring growth as you give and receive energy in complementary—not competitive—ways.

♏Scorpio: Tell an Intense Story— Money flows when you feel the power is under your control, no one else’s. It’s about containments, and survival. You are so very capable of both. Life flourishes when intense emotions are shared with others. It’s a natural way of life for you. Undaunted by prolonged eye contact and intimacy, you are vitalized by meeting life face on, through endurance, challenge and change. Inspiration comes when taking risks, pushing life to the edge and testing the limits. No need to waste words or movements. Get on with the job of being.

♐Sagittarius: Tell an Expansive Story— Money flows when you look to new horizons. You thrive on vibrant physical and mental activity and expansiveness. Open doors, open palm. An outlet is required for the magnitude of energy generated, and more than any other sign, you benefit by having goals and objectives for the future. Fuel your full blown enthusiasm, confidence and dynamism. Life is often seen as an adventure, beset with challenges to conquer and goals to meet. Extroversion to the max, multitasking, travel and adventure bring grand results.

♊ Capricorn: Tell an Ambitious Story—Money flows when you take the ceiling off your desires. The sky is the limit! Acknowledgement of lofty goals and extreme ambition works best. You may also be happiest when working hardest—test that one out to see if it is true. The ability to focus is strong, as is the capacity to size up situations, organizing effectively and generally take charge. Yet you have another side—the Sea-goat is also sensual, mystical and deeply appreciative of the natural and savoury side of life. (Think of the god Pan.) There is a strong desire for self-sufficiency that doesn't preclude fun!

♓ Pisces: Tell a Healing Story—Money flows when you experience the connection with all life. You might like to get okay with a dreamy, ethereal or diffuse approach. Your psychic abilities can be prevalent, whether understood or not, so see what happens when you tap in via meditation, lucid dreaming, music or dance. By exploring your mystical side, a connection beyond the concrete borders of the mind occurs. Relating to the collective can bring a sense of peace and meaning. By looking at the bigger picture and having faith in the unknown, your natural creative and healing qualities awaken, as do all your dreams.

4. Discover alignment:

Suggestions on how to get into 'vibrational' alignment with what you want.

1. Get okay with wealth

This sounds odd, but seriously, many people resist money because they feel they have to give up something essential in order to have it. Perhaps you think money = bad, austerity = (spiritual enlightenment) good. There could be issues of deserving. Do you believe you do deserve wealth? Really? You can accrue massive amounts of money and then 'poof', it's gone? This is a reflection of the cross purpose, and it's time to work with what lies beneath—spiritual vs. pragmatic? Freedom vs. closeness? Wealth vs. love? It's all so 'either/or'!!!

Get okay with any conflicting feelings

The first thing to do, if you recognize the conflicting thoughts around action, freedom, money, spirituality and love is to get on board with 'and/and'. Most of us have an either/or tape running and it's not doing our money vibe any good. If action towards money feels like a commitment, something that 'locks you in' you will resist it with all your might because you feel that particular action can't be experienced without giving up your freedom. You think it's either/or, so your big step is to grow some new neural pathways that think and/and. Freedom AND commitment. Money

AND soul. Dream Job AND independence. Money AND love. Money AND spiritual life. Money AND creative life.

Nail that one, and you'll have it all.

This is so important I am going to say it again. Find a way to change your thinking around money, authenticity of spirit, commitment and freedom. Think and/and!

Quick Tips to get the energy moving:

1. Let go of self-judgment. (be aware of 'self-talk') You are perfect and wonderful exactly the way you are this moment.
2. Allow for the things you love—treat yourself as you would your beloved.
3. Find one new way to value yourself every day. One new thing to appreciate!
4. Let go of one thing that you tolerate each day. Get rid of it or change the way you feel about it so it is no longer a toleration.

Tools to get things moving

Tips, treasures & resources from Good Vibe Coach, Jeannette Maw.

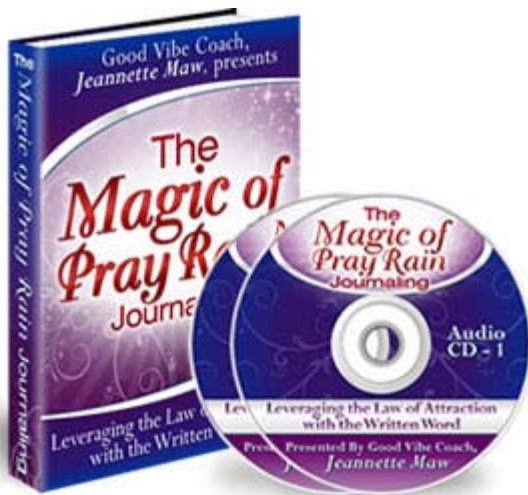

#1 Self Love

Until you love yourself 100% you are not going to experience total abundance. Your financial happiness, like everything else, is an inside job—no one outside of you can MAKE you happy and secure. You do that yourself and when you begin to feel these results, you will flow faster and faster towards your desires.

#2 Pray Rain Journal

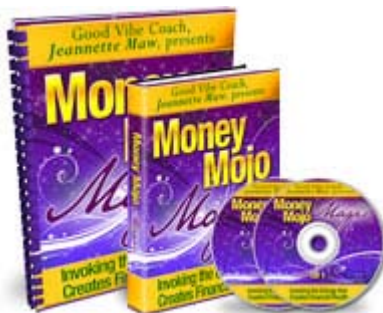

Is the resistance of reality keeping you from getting what you want? Use this unique manifesting method to shift the vibe and make your dreams come true.

A pray rain journal is kept for the purpose of bringing your dream to reality. Its power is in aligning your vibration with that which you want, and is accomplished by putting pen to paper about your dream, as if you were already living it.

#3 Money Mojo Magic

Ready to amp up your money manifesting powers? This e-package shares the ins and outs of lining up your money vibe for financial wealth.

#4 Open Palm

Spend a few minutes a day sitting with open palms, breathing in and out, seeing how harmless it is to bring energy in, 'spend the oxygen' and then send it out. See? No trap there. No giving up of your freedom or true spiritual quest. Just a lovely exchange of o₂ with Co₂ on a cellular level. I want you to feel easy with air, because there is NO difference between money and air. None. It's all energy. Only your thoughts make them seem like different things.

Get really okay with breathing (I know that sounds ridiculous but it's going to help!) As you get okay with air, start imagining money, possessions and other more tangible forms and actions flowing in and out. Imagine love too, if you like, and relationship, easy in and easy out...all the air, money, spirituality and love in the world—no loss of freedom, no trap, no guilt, no toil. Just allowing for what you want—both the actions AND the energy return!

#5 Growing 'worry free' neural pathways:

Work out how long you can go without thinking about money, and do so starting now. Even if it is only a few hours or a day to begin with, give yourself some conscious NO money WORRY time.

Spend time TRUSTING that all is well (because you know it is.) If you can go a week without thinking about your accounts or bills etc, do that! The idea here is to grow some neural pathways in your brain that aren't kinked around money. Take it step by step, an hour, day or week at a time. The idea is NOT to dwell or worry or brood over money 'problems' (which are simply thoughts you keep thinking).

#6 Worthiness Magic

of you can MAKE you happy and secure. You do that yourself and when you begin to feel these results, you will flow faster and faster towards your desires.

Here is how 'worthiness magic' can help. Once a day, write out a short list of 'worthies' and make them specific for money, relationship, career, anything you desire!

Example:

I am worthy of financial abundance.

I am worthy of my dream job.

I am worthy of my inheritance.

I am worthy of independence.

I am worthy of freedom AND closeness.

I am worthy of trust.

I am worthy of profound intimacy.

I am worthy of sex.

I am worthy of great sex.

I am worthy of creative expression.

I am worthy of my voice.

I am worthy . . .

It is such a simple thing, to state ones worthiness of life and everything in it.

The results are spectacular. Try it.

Now for the pay dirt!

The goods, the gravy, the pay off!

What makes it EASY and relaxed to have all the money in the world? How can you shift your vibe to that feeling state BEFORE you even have the money? That's the trick—to feel NOW, how you want to feel when the money rolls in. Get to the feeling state FIRST!

Here are the sign by sign suggestions to help you 'get comfortable' with your preferred AND authentic money alignment. These are geared to vitalize your sun sign—amplifying a sense of authenticity and happiness.

The idea is to FORGET about money while you do this exercise each day and just imagine the feeling of being everything you could possibly be—how good would that feel? Be who you would love to be and bask in that!

You may find that one of the signs resonates stronger than your sun sign description. It may be your moon sign or rising sign, or it may represent a powerful aspect or transit. If you read all 12 signs, you will likely get goose bumps when you come across the one that is 'yours'. Use that as your guide!

#4 Horoscope Get comfortable with what you want

♈Aries: Get Heroic—spend a few moments each day thinking of a NEW adventure in your life. It's exciting, challenging and full of unknown twists and turns. People say 'It can't be done!' And, when you do it, you'll have proved everyone wrong—and YOU, right! Allow yourself to embark, assert and proclaim. You are achieving the victory of your dreams. Feel the triumph!

 Taurus: Get Peaceful—spend a few moments each day basking in the peace and serenity of your life. See all sensual desires completely and beautifully fulfilled—great food, wonderful music, rich aromas, best massage ever (best sex ever) and the most stunning vistas, the most elegant settings you can imagine. You are there now. Allow yourself to feel, immerse, indulge.

 Gemini: Get Talking—spend time each day and ‘say it like you want it to be’. Talk to others, talk to the mirror, say it out loud! Script the life you hope to lead AS IF you were leading it right now. The more you tell others, the truer it becomes for you. Your reality flows directly from your speech centers. Talk about it and feel the wondrous bliss of communication and connection!

 Cancer: Get Nurturing—spend a few moments each day thinking about nurturing—caring for others, AND caring for yourself. Who can you imagine yourself healing, facilitating, cooking for, listening to and sharing with? Who can you imagine yourself loving in the best possible ways? Take care of ‘someone’—a plant, a kitten, a child, a chair that needs paint, your Self. Share the LOVE!

 Leo: Get Creating—spend some time daily with your creative spirit. If you paint, write, take pictures, play music, dance or sing, do MORE of that. If you don’t, but can pretend you do, then do MORE of that too! Allow yourself to be a creative genius AND allow others to see you shine. The more you share your journey, the happier you become. Feel the applause. Feel the rapture!

 Virgo: Get Analyzing—spend some time each day taking ‘something’ down to its component parts—a script, a dress pattern, toaster, Mac or PC, the more you allow yourself to tinker (explore the depths of forever, via carbon based constructs) and nut out the finer details of life, the more ‘worry’, floats away. Get to the bottom of something and feel your brilliant detective come alive!

 Libra: Get Relating—spend some time each day imagining your perfectly ‘wonderful for you’ relationship. (Actual relationships not required). See yourself sharing your life in the ways you want to (YOU, not your cultural paradigm). Talk to your partner, take them with you on a walk, bring them to the table, ask how they see the world. Share your life experience—bask in the union.

 Scorpio: Get Transforming—imagine yourself for a few minutes a day as a phoenix rising from the ashes of your previous life. You are a brilliant, eternal and powerful creature of flight. You are the color and essence of change. The more you SEE and feel and touch and taste the transformation you desire, the more it becomes tangible in your life. Feel the power. Feel the atoms rearrange instantly!

 Sagittarius: Get Expanding—imagine for a moment that you are a magnificent creature, traveling faster than the speed of light, exploring new horizons of thought, breaking all barriers of time and space. Each turn and twist brings a new vista, each conversation a new epiphany, each action a new understanding. Feel the awesome and unlimited powers of perception.

♄Capricorn: Get Producing—imagine you are creating a universe—worlds, ecologies, species, landscapes and hegemonies. Let yourself immerse in the joy, responsibility and wonder of your creations. See what you have produced and KNOW that it is as much a gift of joy to life as it is to your own sense of accomplishment. Immerse in the feeling of your greatest achievements!

♃Aquarius: Get Knowing—spend some time seeing yourself as the keeper of all wisdom. You have access to every storehouse of knowledge that has ever been thought, or ever will be thought. Your genius transcends all cultural concepts of ‘right’ or ‘wrong’, ‘good’ or ‘bad’. Imagine your perception is so great that meaning and purpose become one. Feel the enlightenment.

♓Pisces: Get Believing—spend some time each day immersed in faith—the feeling that all is well, no matter what. Imagine yourself so trusting of life that nothing could ever hurt you. Imagine that your trust and faith are contagious and everyone you come into contact with begins to trust life more too—begins to trust themselves. Feel the infinite interconnection with all life.
